

ANDREW HENRY INTERIORS

Stylish interiors designed exclusively for you

Andrew Henry's belief in quality craftsmanship, originality and attention to detail is woven into the fabric of his company; Andrew Henry Interiors. Creating bespoke design solutions across all styles of property Andrew and his team bring creativity, elegance and inspiration into your home. In their pursuit for perfection, projects are always approached with passion, enthusiasm and a desire to exceed expectations.

Andrew comments, "Co-ordinated, welcoming and inspirational interiors are the result of our careful planning, research and inventive resourcing. We take our inspiration from across the globe and as a team work in a very hands-on manner, bringing a professional attitude with us to each and every project."

Andrew and his team of designers are able to inject soul into any home. Inspirational interiors which encapsulate who his clients are and how they chose to live are his signature mark. An established interior designer with 17 years industry experience, Andrew is not only a pleasure to work with but instils an unshakeable confidence in his design knowledge and ability. Working with a specialist team of contractors including bespoke joiners, curtain makers and artists, Andrew Henry Interiors will expertly manage each project combining creativity, service and value for money whilst doing so.

"It is often the case that clients have clear ideas about what they want but don't know how to achieve it. We are able to give clients the confidence and vision to realise their homes' full potential. We always seek to inject energy and enthusiasm into our work and will bring a variety of ideas and options to the table for the client to choose.

A home is a very personal space and the need for self expression is important. Andrew Henry Interiors will provide the conceptual direction to maximise a property's potential, both in terms of financial future proofing and, perhaps more importantly, it's ability to deliver a smile every time the owner walks through the front door," concludes Andrew.
